Saint Andre Bessette

1845-1937
FEAST DAY — JANUARY 6

Born in Canada, Andre worked for three years in the United States as a weaver and manual laborer. After returning to Canada in 1870, he joined the Congregation of Holy Cross and took final vows in 1874. For decades, Brother Andre humbly served his community near Montreal as doorman, janitor, barber, gardener and infirmarian. With St. Joseph as his model and intercessor, he developed a healing ministry and huge following. In 1904, he moved into Montreal to help build the Oratory of the Holy Cross, and remained there for the rest of his life. When this "Miracle Man of Montreal" was canonized in 2010, Pope Benedict XVI said he "lived the beatitude of the pure of heart."

to walk as ONE

Some kids in the parish school were doing an informal survey about New Year's resolutions. No one in our school is sure why we make them, since no one seems able to keep them, even though they focus on something we can do or change that will make us better people, or help us accomplish our goals. Have you made your New Year's resolution? More importantly, will you keep it?

New Year's Day marks a new beginning, another notch in the life that measures time's progress. We often use the image of a journey to describe it. Journeys are trips with a purpose and we journey through time, through faith, through life, with a purpose—something that we do that gives us a sense of meaning and value.

In the spirit of this feast day, here's a spiritual resolution that is one we can keep. Make progress in your spiritual journey. Set a goal, make a plan, and then accomplish it. Choose something that will make a difference in the way you pray, or believe or practice your faith. Write it out and put it in a place where you will read it often, reminding yourself to stay on course. A year from now, you'll be amazed at just how far you've come!

~James Gaffney, © 2009 Karides Lic. to Pilot Bulletins

"Epiphany: This word indicates the manifestation of the Lord, who, as Saint Paul tells us in the second reading (cf. Eph 3:6), makes himself known to all the nations, today represented by the Magi. In this way, we see revealed the glory of a God who has come for everyone: every nation, language and people is welcomed and loved by him. It is symbolized by the light, which penetrates and illumines all things."

- Pope Francis, Jan. 6, 2019

Welcome to the New Year. May God's blessings fill your year ahead along with His many graces.

Let us pray as we enter the New Year of 2025.

As dawn breaks on the New Year, let us give thanks for all we hold dear: our health, our family and our friends.
Let us release our grudges, our anger and our pains, for these are nothing but binding chains. Let us live each day in the most loving ways, the God-conscious way. Let us serve all who are in need, regardless of race, color or creed.
Let us keep God of our own understanding in our hearts and to chant God's name each day. Let us lead the world from darkness to light, from falsehood to truth and from wrong to right.
Let us remember that we are all one, embracing all, discriminating against none.
May your year be filled with peace, prosperity and love. May God's blessings shower upon you and bestow upon each of you a bright, healthy and peaceful New Year.

May God's peace and blessings be with you all,

BETHANY HOUSE

Bethany House Ministries

December 17, 2024

Dear Friends at St. Brigid Parish,

As 2024 comes to an end, and as we contemplate and celebrate God's unimaginable love made visible in the Incarnation, all of us at Bethany House ministries would like to take this opportunity to thank each one of you for your amazing love and generosity to our Bethany community, both in and out of prison.

Your very generous donation of $1100 worth of gift cards help us to assist individuals being released from jails and prisons, as well as those who are homeless, to receive basic needs such as toiletries and warm clothing.

For over 35 years Bethany House has been providing over 3000 holiday gifts to prisoners in several state facilities, as well as adults and children living in shelters and on the streets of Boston. We could never do this without your help. It certainly takes a village.

Our sisters and brothers who live on the margins, especially prisoners, often feel dehumanized and forgotten by much of society. The people at St. Brigid Parish reveals to them that they are children of God, worthy of dignity, love and respect, and that there are people on this side of the wall who really care. I remember one man in prison, after receiving his gift bag, took out the bar of soap, smelled it for a long time, and remarked that, "this makes me feel human again." Perhaps for the first time in his life, he felt loved. People indeed change when they feel cherished.

In closing, we offer the prayers of our Bethany Community, on both sides of the wall for continued blessings of hope and trust in God's loving providence for you, your parish community and your families during these sacred days. The light of Christ, has indeed come into the world through each one of you.

With tremendous Gratitude,

Ruth Raichle

SOLEMNITY OF THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

By Fr. Larry Rice

"All of creation is changed by the appearance of Christ."

In popular tradition, the feast of Epiphany commemorates the arrival of the three kings at the stable in Bethlehem where Christ was born. The gospel reading for the day—Matthew 2:1-12—tells the story. Over the years, a lot of tradition has grown around this story. Many people will tell you that the magi were three kings, named Caspar, Balthazar, and Melchior, and they may note that Caspar is traditionally depicted with darker skin. But if you read those twelve short verses from Matthew's Gospel, it becomes clear that we really know very little about the magi. We don't know their names. We don't know where they came from—Matthew only says "from the east." We don't even know that they were kings. The word used by Matthew is "magi," meaning someone learned in esoteric knowledge. Some translations call them "astrologers," but the only basis for that is the statement that they were following a star. And even the star itself is a mystery. Astronomers can chart the movement of the stars back in time, but they can't seem to agree about the existence of an astronomical event that would explain the reference. And even the most casual observer would have a hard time explaining what it would mean for a star to move through the sky and then stop over a particular place. Regardless of who the magi were and how the star showed them the way, the most significant part of this event is the identity of the one who is made know—Jesus, the newborn king, who is worthy of homage by all men and women. The meaning of the epiphany that occurs in this gospel passage is that the "the newborn king of the Jews" is revealed to and recognized by people from far and distant lands. The appearance of mystical signs in the sky makes the point that all of creation is changed by the appearance of Christ. Because God has chosen to become human, all creation and all the people of the earth can experience the redemption he has come to bring.
